YIBIN LIU

Tell: +44 7529176653 / +86 13881178066
E-Mail: yliu158@qub.ac.uk
URL: https://pure.qub.ac.uk/en/persons/yibin-liu

EDUCATION

Queen's University Belfast — Belfast, UK

PhD Economics — October 2023 - present

Funded by Centre for Economics, Policy and History (CEPH), an economic history lab collaboration between Queen's University Belfast and Trinity College Dublin.

- Supervisors: Professor John Turner and Dr Chris Colvin
- Working Papers:
  - Hong Kong Banking Crises since 1865: Identification, Causes and Consequences
  - Who are investing in Hong Kong: An analysis on HSBC shareholders
  - Information and the Empire: HSBC shares on the London Stock Exchange, 1866–1898
- Research Interest: economic history, Asian financial history, banking crises, female investment

London School of Economics and Political Science — London, UK

MSc Economic History (Research) (Merit) — September 2022 - September 2023

- MSc Dissertation: Frequent Banking Shocks in Hong Kong 1960-2000: Causes and Impact (68%)
- Courses:

  Economic History: Historical Analysis of Economic Change; Monetary and Financial History; Economic Development of East and Southeast Asia

  Quantitative Training: Introductory Course in Mathematics and Statistics : Optimization and Fixed Points; Topics in Quantitative Analysis in Economic History

University College London — London, UK

BSc Economics (Second-Class Honours: 68%) — September 2019 - June 2022

- Bachelor Dissertation (Distinction: 73%)
- Courses:

  Economics: Microeconomics; Macroeconomics; Economic History; History of Economic Thought; Applied Economics; Economics of Education; Economics of Growth; Economics of Family

  Mathematics and Statistics: Mathematics & Statistical Methods; Quantitative Economics & Econometrics; Microeconometrics; Advanced Linear Algebra; Logic

  Business: Accounting for Business; Global Marketing Strategy

GRANTS & AWARDS

- Economic History Society Bursary Scheme for PhD Students — September 2026
- Queen's Business School PGR Conference Best Paper Award Runner-Up — 19th May 2025
- Laidlaw Scholarship — February 2020 - August 2021

A selective scholarship recognizing outstanding academic achievement funded by Laidlaw Foundation.

SKILLS

- Analytical skills: causal inference models, time series models, structured literature review; focus interview; building structured datasets from unstructured primary sources.
- Data Construction: web scraping and OCR; geocoding.
- Programming & Software: Python; Stata; R; QGIS; Excel.
- Languages: English (Fluent); Mandarin (Native); Japanese (A1/A2); Korean (A1).

TEACHING

- FIN2010: Investment Analysis — September 2025- April 2026

PRESENTATIONS & WORKSHOP

Practicing Social Science: History and Theory Online
A selective graduate research workshop initiated by Prof. Philip C.C. Huang, focusing on major theories and methodologies in the social sciences 10th July 2026-28th August 2026

Queen's Business School Graduate Conference Belfast, Northern Ireland
Presentation 19th May 2025

Economic History Association Annual Meeting Philadelphia, USA
Poster Session 5th September 2025-6th September 2025

Hong Kong History Centre Graduate Conference Bristol, England
Presentation 25th June 2025-26th June 2025

Association of Business History Annual Conference Belfast, Northern Ireland
Slaven Workshop Presentation 18th June 2025-20th June 2025

Queen's Business School Graduate Conference Belfast, Northern Ireland
Presentation 4th June 2025

DATINI-ESTER 2025 advanced seminar, 'Finance in History' Prato, Italy
Presentation 11th May 2025-17th May 2025

Economic History Society Annual Conference Glasgow, England
New Researcher Poster Session 4th April 2025 – 6th April 2025

Economic History Society Funded Residential Training Course for PhD Students Coventry, England
Presentation 27th November 2024-30th November 2024

10th Summer School for Quantitative History Shanghai, China
Co-organized by the HKU Business School, Shanghai Jiao Tong University, and Renmin University of China.
Presentation 6th June 2024-16th June 2024